

CALIFORNIA BUDGET PROJECT

What Does It Take for a Family to Afford to Pay for Health Care?

The California Budget Project (CBP) invites legislators, Capitol staff, and advocates to a briefing on a new report jointly authored by the CBP and the UCLA Center for Health Policy Research, "What Does It Take for a Family to Afford to Pay for Health Care?"

This report recommends how proposals can make health care affordable for families by including adequate subsidies for Californians and by limiting copayments, deductibles, and other out-of-pocket costs.

WHAT: What Does It Take for a Family to Afford to Pay for Health Care?

WHO: David Carroll, research director, CBP
Jean Ross, executive director, CBP
